

We want to lift the spirits of those unable to be in church with us today. Please help by picking up care cards in the sanctuary. The cards are already addressed and stamped. Just write a brief note and drop it in the mail. Thank you for extending your prayers and love to our homebound and others in need.

“Even the Stones Cry Out” | Inspired by Luke 19: 28-40
By Lauren Wright Pittman

To all who are weary and need rest; To all who are burdened and need relief; To all who are lonely and need friends; To all who are looking for something that only God can provide; To all who sin and need a Savior; To whosoever will come, Bethel UMC, the House of God, opens her doors, and in the name of Jesus Christ says, “Welcome!”

Call to Worship

It is holy to gather.

It is holy to sing.

It is holy to be generous, to throw our coats on the road.

It is holy to celebrate justice when we see it.

It is holy to shout, “Hosanna!”

It is holy to remember.

It is holy to gather.

It is holy to sing.

Here and now, let us do all of these things.

As we close out our worship service in song, know that the altar rail is always open for you to come and pray, offering a word for someone else, re-committing your heart to God, or to come for the first time to accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior. Come as you feel led.

The Passion

This morning’s worship begins Holy Week, when we journey with Jesus and the disciples to the cross. We leave this place today in silence, without a benediction. Instead we are holding vigil, waiting, praying, and worshipping in numerous communal ways throughout the week until we celebrate Christ’s resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Please stand if able*
